

REMARKS

The specification has been amended to update the priority claim to include the issued patent. The title was amended to correct a typographical error. The title listed in the present application should have been that of the parent application, Serial No. 09/739,096 (now U.S. Patent No. 6,676,537), but it was inadvertently listed as "Polyurethane Covered Golf Ball" on the Application Data Sheet, Preliminary Amendment and Application Transmittal. Applicants respectfully submit that this application is not directed to a polyurethane covered golf ball and request that the title be amended to the title of the parent application. Applicants respectfully submit that no new matter has been added.

Respectfully submitted,

R. DENNIS NESBITT ET AL.
